UPHAM MAKES A FLAT DENIAL

Treasurer of Republican National Committee Before Probers.

Denies all Knowledge of 'Quota Lists' Referred to by Cox

Gives List of Banks Making Loans To The Committee

Makes Categorical Answer To Some Questions

Says No Contributions Exceed $2500 All Told

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, August 31.—Denial under oath that he had ever seen, heard of, or ordered made up the list of campaign quotas assigned to various cities as charged by Governor Cox in the latter's speech at Pittsburg, was made today by Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the Republican National Committee, in testimony before the Senatorial committee investigating campaign expenses.

Chairman Kenyon of the committee called attention to the list, saying it totalled more than eight million dollars.

"The first time I ever saw the list was in the newspapers the day after the Cox speech," said Mr. Upham. "Furthermore, no one in my office made up such a list with my knowledge or consent."

Mr. Upham also denied flatly that the official bulletins issued from his office to field workers engaged in raising the Republican campaign fund were secret or counselled secrecy.

He pointed out the only prohibition in that respect referred to publishing lists of contributors in local newspapers.

BANKS MAKE LOANS

Two banks in New York, one in Chicago, one in Boston and one in San Francisco, as well as two individuals, have contributed to the $360,000 borrowed by the Republican National Committee.

Mr. Upham told Senator Reed these loans were made on authority of the party executive committee and do not constitute a legal application on which the lenders could sue the committee members.

LEADING QUESTIONS

Before leaving the stand, Mr. Upham, questioned by Senator Kenyon, entered a categorical denial to Governor Cox's charges that "special interests" were financing the Republican campaign.

"Are persons favoring a protective tariff being specially solicited?" Senator Kenyon asked.

"Not that I know of."

"Are banking interests being asked to contribute as a class?"

"No."

"Is any campaign being made among those who seek to control the federal reserve bank?"

"No."

The banks and the amounts they loaned the committee are: Liberty National, New York, $125,000; First National Bank, Boston, $50,000; Continental and Commercial Bank, Chicago, $50,000; Chase National Bank, New York, $75,000; Crocker National Bank, San Francisco, $25,000; Walter F. Dickey, $25,000; Fred W. Upham, $10,000.

ACCUSED BY COX, G. O. P. LEADERS DENY $15,000,000 FUND

Left to right, seated: Will Hays, Senator Harding and Harry M. Daugherty. Standing: John W. Weeks, F. W. Upham, Charles D. Hilles, Jake Hamon, A. T. Hart and Clarence F. Miller.

That these men are taking a leading part in an effort to raise a Republican campaign fund of $15,000,000 is the charge of Gov. Cox. They vigorously deny the charge. Fred W. Upham is secretary. Will Hays is chairman. Clarence Miller is secretary. John W. Weeks is raising G. O. P. campaign funds in New England. Charles D. Hilles is secretary. A. T. Hart in Kentucky and Jake Hamon in Oklahoma. Daugherty managed Harding's pre-convention campaign.

UPHAM TOLD TO BRING IN RECORDS

Ordered to Bring Quota Sheets And List of Speakers

Contracts For All Advertising On Bill Boards

Want Contracts, too, With Foreign Language Papers

List Demanded of Amounts To Be Paid The Speakers

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, August 31.—On demand of Senator Reed, the committee sent Mr. Upham back to his office to produce the much discussed "quota sheet," showing the amount each state was asked to raise for both national and state campaign purposes.

Senator Reed also instructed the treasurer to produce all records showing:

The items making up the aggregate sums of the national budget;

The names of all speakers who are to be paid, with the amounts they are to receive;

Contracts for billboard advertising;

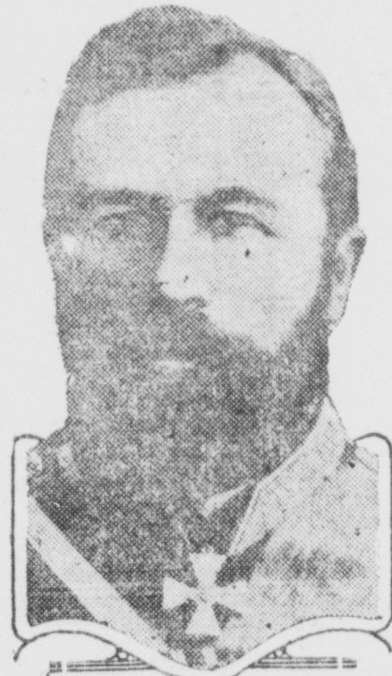

Contracts for advertising in foreign language newspapers.

Mr. Upham was instructed to be back at 2 o'clock with the evidence demanded, and Representative Foss, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, was called to the stand.

A BLAZING INFERNO

MACSWINEY STILL ALIVE GROWS WEAKER

End May Come Now At Any Minute Attendants Say

(By Associated Press)

London, August 31.—Terrence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, who has been on a hunger strike since August 12 was still alive this morning, but his sister, Mary, who visited him, said he was growing weaker and that "the end may come at any moment."

MacSwiney spent a restless night, and his sister remained nearer Brixton prison, where he is confined, throughout the night, thinking she might be called.

An official who saw MacSwiney early today described his condition as being like that of a "man on a precipice," adding that "the slightest breeze might blow him over at any time."

STATE HEADS CALL ON HARDING

Republican Governors Hear Nominee On Conservancy

Entire Party Attends G. A. R. Picnic in Park.

(By Associated Press)

Marion, O., August 31.—Republican governors had their turn today on Senator Harding's front porch calendar, journeying to Marion to pay their respects to the Republican nominee and to hear an address by him on reclamation and conservation of the nation's natural resources.

The need of an after war reconstruction policy to rehabilitate industry and open new fields of enterprise, particularly in the West, was stressed by Senator Harding in the address, prepared for the occasion.

He drew a parallel between present conditions and those following the Civil war and touched on the possibilities of giving former service men homes and reclaimed government land.

Fourteen states were represented in the list of visitors, which included not only governors but several former governors and gubernatorial nominees.

Their reception was timed for shortly before noon, and after the Senator's speech the entire party were invited guests at a G. A. R. picnic at a Marion park.

Among the state executives who accepted invitations to attend were two of Senator Harding's opponents for the presidential nomination, Governors Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, and William C. Sproul of Pennsylvania.

ASSERTS QUOTAS WERE TO BE SOLD

Governor Cox Brands As False Statements of Hays

Again Refers to City Quota Sheets Adopted by Managers

Demands That State Chairmen Be Called by Senate

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, O., August 31.—Governor Cox, presidential candidate, in a statement today, declared as "absolutely untrue and false" statements attributed to Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, before the Senate sub-committee investigating campaign expenditures that it was not the policy of the Republican committee to obtain contributions in excess of $1,000.

Governor Cox again referred to what purported to be an official document issued by the Republican committee to prove his assertions. The document referred to by the Governor is alleged to have been issued two days after Senator Harding's nomination at Chicago by Treasurer Upham.

The document, Governor Cox said, showed by its preface that subscriptions were to be sought in excess of five thousand dollars; that the "quotas" would be sold and that a minimum of $300,000 was to be sought in cities the size of St. Louis, Cleveland and Detroit.

The Governor declared all state chairmen should be summoned by the committee to bring all documents relating to money raising with them.

"The spotlight should be thrown on the activities of all political parties, and it should be kept there intensely until election day," he added.

"Enough is known now, through records from Mr. Hays' headquarters, to convince the public that, as the head of a great organization, he has deceived the public, and at an official hearing defied the truth."

THE MICHIGAN PRIMARIES ON LIST FOR TODAY

Full List of Candidates To Be Named by Voters

(By Associated Press)

Detroit, Mich., August 31.—Candidates for governor, lieutenant governor, congressman, the state legislature and county offices were selected in a state-wide primary in Michigan today.

Three women aspired to seats in Congress, and six of the state's present representatives were opposed for re-nomination.

IN POLITICS AGAIN

Joseph M. Dixon.

Ex-Senator Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, who as the manager of the Roosevelt campaign in 1912 was very much in the public eye, is again in politics. Following the dissolution of the Bull Moose party he dropped out of politics for some years, but bobbed up again a few days ago when the Republicans of Montana nominated him for governor.

GENERAL WOOD MAKES VISIT TO CAMP SHERMAN

Commander of Central Department Inspects Camp

No Foundation For Rumor Of Camp Abandonment

(Special To The Herald)

Chillicothe, O., August 31.—General Leonard Wood, commanding the Central Department at Chicago, is visiting Camp Sherman. He is accompanied by four aides and today made his last and final inspection of Camp Sherman, preliminary to turning it over tomorrow to General Reed, who will command the Fifth Army Corps.

General Wood stated here that the story given circulation that the camp would be abandoned was absolutely without foundation, and that he had been misquoted as stating that such was to be the case.

General Wood's inspection was his last as commander of the Central Department, which with the other departments becomes obsolete with the division of the country into army corps districts.

PROSPECT FOR LONG SERVICE TIE-UP

Brooklyn's Transit Systems Are Paralyzed by Strike

Factions Declare Determination To Fight to a Finish

Extra Force of Police and Reserves Held in Readiness

(By Associated Press)

New York, August 31.—Prospects of a long drawn-out contest between the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company and its striking employees were apparent today.

With virtually no increase in service by the subways, elevated roads and trolleys since the unexpected strike Sunday seriously crippled the system, both the company and the strikers declared their determination to fight to a finish.

Meanwhile, Brooklyn's two million residents struggled with improvised means of conveyance. Early today, a trolley inspector was beaten to unconsciousness by six alleged strikers, all of whom were arrested.

About 4,500 policemen were on duty in the borough, and a large force of reserves was held in readiness.

JIGGS UP TO HIS OLD TRICKS AGAIN

Although Maggie forbade him going, Jiggs would stay out all night, and came to the Wonderland in the wee small hours of Tuesday morning, and didn't seem to mind it at all because he failed to appear last evening on scheduled time.

However he is now here and will appear at the Wonderland Tuesday night and again in the morning at 9:30 o'clock, having made special arrangements to stay over to see the children Wednesday morning.

Mr. McManus' popular "Bringing Up Father" cartoons, which are enjoyed by Daily Herald readers, has just been put in motion pictures for release by International Service through Pathe. The first of them is called "Jiggs in Society," the role of Mr. Jiggs enacted by Johnny Ray, famous Irish comedian of the stage. Margaret Fitzroy's make-up as "Maggie" is also a triumph.

This is the picture now showing at the Wonderland and Maggie's desperate efforts to break into the aristocratic Four Hundred and the balking of Jiggs make-up a gleeful, peppy comedy that is one of the most popular screen attractions.

WILL NOT FINISH COLUMBUS PIKE UNTIL NEXT YEAR

Fayette County's Portion to Be Completed This Fall.

The Columbus pike will not be completed its entire length this fall, although in Fayette county the improvement, it is announced, will be finished before cold weather sets in.

The Pickaway county portion of the road—some 6.5 miles probably will not be completed, and the Madison county portion, some three miles of very bad road, has not been contracted for and consequently will not be opened this fall.

With completion of the Fayette county portion, and probable completion of the Pickaway county portion, it is believed that the best route to Columbus will be shifted to the Columbus pike regardless of the few miles of unimproved roadway.

As the roadway is the nearest route to Columbus, local auto owners and in fact all who wish to use the route are very anxious to have the road completed just as speedily as possible, and already are protesting at the delay, which has been due to inability to obtain material in abundant quantity, according to the contractors.

TIRE THIEVES BECOME ACTIVE

Watch your spare tires!

Tire stealing has become quite frequent in this city recently and auto owners who have neglected to lock their spare tires to the holders are warned to be careful.

Some of the tires stolen lately have been removed in broad daylight, but most of the tires disappear under cover of darkness.

Stealing motometers also is reported.

STILL DROPPING

Sugar is selling in nearly all the local groceries today at 15 cents per pound and the wise ones say it will go down to ten cents before it become stationary.

The slump in sugar has caught many wholesale houses who were loaded up by the jobbers at fancy prices, and these will be hard hit financially. Local wholesalers, it is said, however, will get away almost clear, because they stocked up with only enough to carry their trade from time to time, and are in a position themselves to take advantage of the drop in sugar.—Chillicothe Gazette.

MAYOR DECIDES TO TAKE ACTION

Mayor Ayers, of Wilmington, because of the very unsatisfactory artificial gas service in that city, has decided to ask the public utilities commission to force the company to give service or suspend business and allow someone to take hold of the plant that will furnish satisfactory pressure.

Commencing September the First

"Extremely Smart" Describes the New Fall Suits

To mention the smart lines of these tailored modes, is merely to hint at their full beauty. They just seem to fit into the pictured days of Autumn—and like falling leaves, many of them come in brown tones. Here is one of serge, there another of tricotine and duvetyn repeats itself in many of the models. No need to attempt to describe them all—one could not do justice to their originality and the many charming ways in which rich embroidery and fur trimming have been brought into play.

With Such Distinctive Wraps Chilly Days are Welcome

They are interesting to see, but you will long for the moment when you can afford to wrap yourself in one of these models. Being made of soft fabrics, they drape remarkably well. Large collars seem to be the rule, and in very many instances, they are of fur. The designers have not only originated new style lines, but have evolved many new ways of using embroidery to lend smartness and distinction to the most important garment a woman is to wear this Fall.

Autumn Frocks for Every Hour of the Day

There are frocks of wool and frocks of silk. Chemise and frocks that take no coat lines. Frocks with floating panels, others with tunics and surplice bodices—almost no end to the style variation, fabrics and models of trimming. They are refreshing to see. They show the cleverness and originality of fashion designers. And how refreshing one will appear when clothed in their charming lines.

To Give Your Suit a Softening Touch, New Blouses

The more frills the greater the favor, seems to be the way in Blousedom. Georgette crepe Blouses in tones creamy as well as in rich nasturtium shades make one forget all else in admiration of their rich Autumnal beauty. But they are not only blouses now popular, oh, no! Taffetas and satin Blouses are prominent features of this season's fashions, too.

Stylish Stout Apparel that Promises Ar- tistic Dress

You need only see these special displays of fashionable apparel to fully appreciate that fashion has not been indifferent to the particular requirements of full-formed women. These modes are not mere adaptations of more slender garments but are designed especially for women of larger build. They possess characteristics which give them an air of appropriate correctness and give the wearer the advantage of a slenderized silhouette.

Corsets to Groom the Figure for the New Modes

It is one thing to be beautiful and another thing to look the part. A woman's natural charm and gracefulness can only be expressed through her apparel, when she has clothed her figure with a corset that will accentuate the style lines of the garment. Our corsetieres announce the new models for Fall. Every type of figure can be scientifically corseted here. There is a very wide selection of models, exquisitely fashioned of coutil, broche and batiste.

Fabrics that Challenge Scissors, Needles and Nimble Fingers

This showing predicts a lively sewing season for here are materials that have anticipated everything which women want to make. Beautiful satin meteors, taffetas and crepe de chins in plain shades and flowered patterns, suggest one silk frock, blouse, or skirt after another. Woolens of rich colorings and durable textures are here for that modish suit, frock or wrap. Home seamstresses will find this an occasion that will help them plan their sewing program.

In Her Supreme Moment, Fashion Designs Chic Hats

It must have been so, for these new hat modes for Fall could only be the product of happy inspiration. And one need not wonder whether these new styles will be becoming, for there are hats for every type of face and figure. Some are with large picturesque brims and others with no brims at all. Duvetyns and velvets are pronounced. And the trimmings! Ostrich fancies with their long graceful sweeping lines, wings, ribbons, and brilliant metal embroideries give these hats smartness and exclusiveness, virtually giving everyone a personality.

Accessories of Dress for Autumn

It may be depended upon that no small detail is overlooked by the well groomed woman. Our collection of smart neckwear—tailored and elaborate is typical of the completeness and up-to-dateness of other dress accessories, as, for instance, new rain or shine umbrellas, handkerchiefs, hosiery, veiling, perfumes, ribbons, novelty jewelry, bags and gloves.

The State Fair

This week the great Ohio State Fair steps out in the center of the stage in public attention.

We have always insisted that fairs, county and state, cleanly conducted, are a splendid thing for the community the activity of which they exhibit.

There is no place people can go, no entertainment and no school or college, where so much worth while in knowledge and entertainment can be obtained as the fairs. The bigger the fair, the bigger the community it represents, the bigger the opportunity is for pleasure and the acquisition of knowledge.

The farmers have made marvelous progress during the last year or two and they have been remarkably prosperous. They have become a forward looking part of the workers of the land and they have cast aside a great deal of the pessimism which was, unfortunately, for so many years a part of the farmer.

They have seen the light and they are going ahead. The farmers, by contact with each other and by progressive thinking and acting, have taken their place in the world.

The fairs in the size and character of their exhibits and in their attendance records proof of the progress of the farmers.

The Real Allignment

Senator Harding's Saturday speech defining his position on the league of nations issue may be expected to bring a more definite allignment of the press of the country. In fact the independent press is already beginning to shift about, in its allegiance, as the final lineup on what is certain, after all, to be the deciding issue of the campaign.

There is not much change in the heretofore declared position of the partisan press expected. The publications which have been supporting Senator Harding's candidacy because of party affiliation will continue that support and those publications which have opposed his candidacy because of party preference will continue their opposition.

It is to the changes, if any occur, in the independent press of the land that the voters must look as into a clear mirror for the reflections forecasting a change, one way or the other, in the great body of independent voters who are certain, by their ballots, to record the final election results.

In spite of the claims of partisan managers there is a marked shifting of positions probable among the independent voters. Thousands are yet groping for facts about the dominant issue—the league of nations—and other thousands have only temporarily anchored, either for or against, during the preliminary discussions.

Now as the time for final action, with its attendant responsibility, approaches nearer and the pronouncements, of the candidates and leaders, become more definite the final allignment may be expected—an interesting and instructive process and a process which insures the safety of American institutions.

The County's Population

During the two decades behind us this county has lost in population, in the rural sections to a greater extent than the growth of the cities has been able to overcome.

There are reasons apparent for this shrinkage recorded in population and while it has not been nearly so large as other rural communities throughout the nation record yet, even with our own splendid county and its unrivalled advantages, it is more than sufficient to direct attention to the dangerous drift of population which we are all making earnest endeavors to check or to turn back—a current which is now showing indications of responding to the efforts of men who have realized the menace in conditions.

It is quite probable that if all census figures were collected now that the effect of checking the tide cityward would be noted because since the census was taken there has been quite a marked exodus from many of the industrial centers and the back to the farm movement has been on in earnest.

Really, even on the census figures recording a loss as compared with ten years ago, this county has cause to congratulate itself on so little effect of those menacing currents which have cut so deeply into the rural population.

POETRY FOR TODAY

FACES OF LITTLE PEOPLE

Faces of little people—they are made of the stars and sun,
The shine of the silver rivers, the glow of the heart of fun;
And ever, where streets are crowded or at home a shadow strays,
They brighten the heart of the moment with the miracle of their rays.

Faces of little people—no medicine like them for ill
Of the soul, for the manly purpose of life and the flagging will;
A tonic of beauty and magic, they call from the shades of gloom
The joy that shall burst in the beauty of sunshine and of bloom.

Faces of little people—in the street, in the lane, where they go,
They're a dancing light of diversion, an ebb and mystic glow;
And before them the clouds are scattered, and the sorrow and sin and blight,
And above them and all around them the glory of laughter and light,
Baltimore Sun.

GOLDEN STATE SENATE RACE IN SPOT LIGHT

Choice of November Opponent
To Phelan to be Made

Party Leaders Sure of Victory
Over Incumbent but Independents Not So Certain.

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

Washington, D. C., August 30.—On Tuesday of this week the Republicans of California will name a candidate for the United States Senate. On this candidate the national managers of the Republican party must rely for their hope of winning one of those six or eight senatorial seats which they say they are going to take away from the Democrats this fall.

The Republican party management is very confident about this matter of increasing their present narrow senate majority of two, up to something they can feel more comfortable with. Whenever you talk with the Republican managers and cross-question them for their basis for this expectation of increasing their majority in the senate, they always say that Senator Phelan of California is one of the Democrats whose seat they can readily take.

Competent observers in California, including good Republicans, are not as confident on this point as the Republican managers in New York are. It is true that Senator Phelan got in originally by a fluke. He was one of those many Democratic beneficiaries of the split between the Republicans and the Progressives, in 1914. Of course, Phelan this time, will have no such easy race; but it is nevertheless true that during his six years in office he has entrenched himself greatly in the public favor.

More Than a Senator

Phelan has come to be something more than a member of the senate from California; his position in Washington is in a way that of Ambassador from California. Californians regard him not merely as a senator, but as a sort of symbol of the state, a kind of public possession in which nearly everybody has a feeble interest.

For the Republican nomination to oppose Phelan at the November election there are three contestants in the race which ends tomorrow. They are A. J. Wallace, of Los Angeles; Samuel Shortridge of San Francisco; and William Kent also of San Francisco.

Among these three contestants the elements of the state are divided and crisscrossed in such an intricate way that it is not easy to make the situation clear to folks outside the state. One division is simple; Wallace comes from the southern part of the state and the other two come from the north.

In California sectional sentiment counts more than in any other state. The south is determined, as a matter of precedent and right, to have one of the two senators; and as the continuing member, Hiram Johnson, comes from San Francisco, the south in this present contest is pretty solidly for Wallace.

Part of "Chuch Element"

There was a second man in the race from Los Angeles, but he was persuaded to withdraw in order that Wallace might have all the southern strength.

Wallace will also have most of the extreme "dry" vote, although a few of the prominent prohibitionists of the state are working for Kent. (The "wet" strength will go generally to Shortridge.) Wallace has been a long time prohibitionist, and all his lifetime has been identified with what California speaks of as "the church element," which element is here, as everywhere, pronouncedly "dry."

Wallace also, at the start of his campaign, had a monopoly of the more ardent position in favor of the League of Nations. He was for it strongly. During recent months, however, he seems to have whittled down his position in something like the same proportion that the official Republican position in the nation provides the occasion for most of the humor in the present California campaign.

This League of Nations issue, however, is not sufficiently defined among the various candidates to make the primary the sort of demonstration from which anything very accurate can be deduced as to just how California feels on this subject.

Is Out-and-Out Opponent

The candidate who is most avowedly anti-League of Nations is Samuel Shortridge, of San Francisco. Shortridge is an old line Republican, but during the past year he embraced the position taken by Senator Johnson of extreme opposition to the League. He campaigned for Senator Johnson in the presidential primaries and was a conspicuous illustration of that extraordinary re-arrangement of bedfellowships, which occurred in California politics when Johnson and the old guard got together this year.

Many of Johnson's followers are working in behalf of this old-line Republican, although Johnson personally seems to continue in the position of "sitting on the front porch and looking down the bay," a quaint phrase invented by Johnson, which has come to have a definite meaning and is current in discussions of all sorts of aspects of politics throughout the country.

The third candidate for the Republican nomination for senator from California is William Kent.

Kent is as well known in Washington as in San Francisco and for that reason everybody in Washington rather hopes that Kent will win. Washington without Kent would be a duller place to live in. Kent in the senate would give that body some of the flavor and pungency it used to get from John Sharp Williams and years ago from Vest, of Arkansas, or that congress used to get from Thomas B. Reed.

Is Brilliant Maverick

Unhappily probably the very qualities which endear Kent to Washington will be a handicap to him in his present contest.

Kent is a brilliant maverick. In one of his terms in the lower house he was officially described as a Republican; in another term he was the only man in the house who was officially designated as an "Independent." Further than this, Kent, a few years ago, consorted a good deal with that class of Republicans who were then known as "insurgents," and also was known to have a good deal of sympathy with the Progressive party.

Finally, one of the things that now count against him in the role of candidate for a Republican nomination for the senate is the fact that in various utterances and acts on isolated occasions he has stood up for President Wilson.

Of course if truly understood, what this means is not that Kent has changed, but that events has done a lot of changing in the last half dozen years or so. Kent is still where he always has been—an impulsive man of independent mind and boldly impetuous temperament. It's the world that has been gyrating around, not Kent. But of course, the world isn't going to see it that way. Just because the eccentricities of events have operated to place a new and different party label on Kent every two years, that, it is Kent, and not the world, that is eccentric.

Reputation His Handicap

It is this reputation that is Kent's greatest handicap in his present effort. This is no year for nonconformists, and Kent is of the stuff of which nonconformists are made. This is

COAL IS SCARCE
PASSES THROUGH TO THE LAKES

Regardless of the fact that a steady stream of coal is pouring through this city by the hundreds of car loads daily, there is still very little coal available to local citizens, and little prospect of an adequate supply before early November.

Every freight train from the south carries coal and this is being shipped to the north and lake ports as rapidly as possible under the Interstate Commerce Commission's priority rule.

Along the lakes great quantities of coal may be seen and many of the northern points are well supplied, although as a general thing there is still a heavy demand and will be on account of the tremendous quantities in demand.

Less than 15 percent of local citizens have their coal supply for the coming winter, and probably will not be able to get it before November, when it is expected large quantities of fuel will reach the city.

TRAIN RIDERS
ARE GIVEN WORK

"Work or works" is the ultimatum handed to a number of train riders picked up by B. & O. detective Fred Lienrance during the past day or two and taken before Judge Allen in Probate Court.

"We'll work!" agreed the men, and they were given the task of making a thorough clean-up of the courthouse basement rooms—a job which will require their attention for two or three days. The men are being fed well and kept under surveillance during their sojourn within the city, and sleep in safety behind bars each night.

INSTITUTE DRAWS
MORE TEACHERS
FOR SECOND DAY

Eighty-five of Hundred and Forty-five Teachers in Fayette County Hear Able Lecture at Annual Institute.

Supt. Francis Urges More Attention to Individual Pupil To Insure Success.

With an increased number of teachers in attendance, bringing the total up to fully 85, the second day of the Fayette County Teacher's Institute opened Tuesday morning with President R. E. Correll, of Jeffersonville, in the chair, and with renewed interest on the part of every teacher.

Dr. J. H. Francis, superintendent of the Columbus, Ohio, public schools gave one of his best lectures, speaking on the teacher and the pupil, warning the teachers against adhering too closely to book methods and failing to study the individual pupil and urged them to be governed in their dealing with the pupil by the deductions resulting from studying the individual.

Professor Chas. A. Keith, Richmond, Kentucky, spoke on "Capital and Labor" stating that a few years ago capital went to the extreme in dealing with the great industrial question, but at the present time it is labor that has gone to the extreme. He insisted the wages drawn by the average unskilled laborer, if paid to teachers would enable the teacher to give better service by additional preparation and with a greater degree of satisfaction to all concerned.

Both Professors Puffer and Keith, in their lectures, have said that it was their belief that the League of Nations means much to America and the world, and that America will miss a golden opportunity unless she is a member of the League.

The necessity of the better class of women voting was impressed by the speakers.

Wednesday's program will include besides the lectures of Prof. Keith, lectures by Dr. Herbert Martin, of Des Moines, Iowa, who appeared before the teachers last year and delivered lectures out of the ordinary.

The music committee, under the direction of Miss Marian Cadwallader, has been contributing many enjoyable selections and adding spirit to each session.

MANY ATTENDING
THE STATE FAIR

The Fayette countians attending the State Fair this week will probably establish a new record, as scores of auto parties are attending or planning to attend at least one day during the big fair.

Railroad accommodations are expected to be taxed to the utmost capacity as well as great numbers of automobile making the trip.

Early reports indicate that the fair is up to the usual standard with many new attractions and ful displays in the various departments.

SAYS GOP PLAN HAS CHILLED THE WEST

(By Associated Press)
Indianapolis, August 30.—Senator Harding's statements how he would conduct the presidency have thrown a chill into the Republican campaign in the west, Franklin D. Roosevelt declared in an address here tonight. "Visions of the Senate cabal, of an insidious power behind the chief magistrate, will not down" he said.

The Penrose and Watson and Smoots and Lodges are at least no more popular than in the past. The people want a leader, not a syndicated presidency."

The vice presidential candidate declared that the West is asking why the Republican candidates are not going to visit them.

"There are vivid memories of Mr. Hughes' disastrous campaign to the Pacific coast in 1916," he said, adding: "That failure was a failure because Mr. Hughes' one great argument was that everything any Democrat had ever done was a horrible catastrophe. "He was ungenerous; he was a knocker, and not a booster. Today, the feeling is very much the same. The West is rapidly getting the idea that the present managers of the Republican campaign are afraid to let their candidate go west of the Mississippi. It is argued that their fear is a repetition of 1916."

Columbus, August 30.—Answering testimony of Will H. The Governor added that neither had the "drys contributed."

Governor Cox statement was made after reading newspaper accounts of the hearing in Chicago, before which Chairman Hays read a letter purporting to be from George T. Carroll, president of the New Jersey Federation of Liquor Interests asking for contributions to help elect Cox.

"It is very well understood, in this state in particular," Governor Cox said, "that the wets have not been active in politics for some time. If Mr. Hays will take the time to investigate the official report in Ohio, he will find that the wets never contributed a cent to any of my campaigns."

UPHAM DENIES

Early in his examination, Mr. Upham denied there had been any cases of subterfuge in connection with the limitation of individual campaign contributions to $1,000.

He told Senator Kenyon, who brought up the topic, that there were eight gifts of more than $1,000, but that none of these exceeded $2,500.

One of the most interesting booths at the Fall Festival is promised by the American Legion. This will be the first time such a large collection of the world war memorabilia was shown in the city and preparations call for souvenirs from all over France, Belgium, Germany and other countries where the American Legion members have seen service.

Not only military trophies will be displayed, but the various kinds of money bits of curious civilian clothing used in these countries and pictures interesting to former soldiers and the public will be on display. It is planned to have a member at the booth at all times to explain the exhibits.

All former soldiers who have souvenirs which will be of interest are requested to communicate with T. H. Craig, Jr., who is chairman of the display.

The booth will be a meeting place for former soldiers, and information concerning the American Legion, War Risk Insurance and other interests of ex-soldiers will be available. W. B. Hyer will be in charge of the booth.

HAVE NO TRACE OF HOLD-UP MEN

Although every effort has been made by the authorities no trace has been found of the trio of bandits who Saturday night held up and robbed the Millwood Grocery and escaped in a Buick automobile.

All surrounding towns have been given careful descriptions of the trio and are on the lookout.

FIND NO CLEW

So far not a single clew has been found that would indicate who stole the Big Six Studebaker car from the J. M. Baker garage on East Court street recently. A country-wide search is in progress.

"BIG FIVE" PLAN TO SELL PACKING PLANTS

Book Value of Stock Placed At $40,000,000.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, August 31.—Plans of the "big five" meat packers for disposition of their stockyards interests, required under the decree recently entered in agreement with the Department of Justice, contemplates sale of such interests in fifteen cities to F. H. Prince & Company of Boston.

The project was filed today with the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, as required by the divorce decree. It places the book value of the stock to be disposed of at between $20,000,000 and $40,000,000.

WEATHER AND CROP SUMMARY

Columbus Aug. 30.—Weather has continued fair over the region during the past 24 hours except that light showers occurred in south east Nebraska and northeast Kansas. It is warmer in the middle Mississippi Valley but is still below normal generally except in northern Minnesota and westward.

For the week ending August 24, 1920 the moderate to heavy rains and the slightly sub-normal temperatures of the week were generally favorable to corn, pastures, tobacco, late potatoes and late truck crops, but were unfavorable to thrashing and haying. There was considerable damage in some sections of the state to the grain and hay still in the field on account of the continued wet weather. Corn made very good to excellent progress during the week and its condition is highly satisfactory. Fruit and vegetables of good quality are now plentiful; grapes are doing fine; considerable fall plowing.

The summary of weather and crop conditions in the corn and wheat region for the week ending August 24, 1920 as issued from Washington D. C. August 24, 1920 are as follows:

The temperature for the week averaged slightly below normal in most sections from the Rocky Mountains eastward, especially in the lower great Plains States, with continued frequent moderate rains in the more eastern states. The moderate though heavy rains were very beneficial in the central districts between the Mississippi River and the Rocky Mountains and as a result corn was greatly improved in that area although the rains were too late to be beneficial in a few localities. Warmer weather is now needed for corn in northern sections but it made satisfactory to very good progress in most of the south and the Atlantic Coast states. The harvest of late grain crops made good progress in the northwest but was delayed by heavy rains in the north east. Other crops made satisfactory advance and the soil is now in good condition for plowing in most of the winter wheat belt.

Meteorologist.

WEEDS ARE CUT ON U. S. PROPERTY

It's Economical To Use Cream

Many of our patrons are finding the use of more cream and less whole milk a real economy. Here's how they do it:

About every other day they get a small bottle of cream, and half the usual quantity of milk. This cream they use for cooking, as in potatoes, rice, gravies, etc., diluted of course, and in baking. Thus they use less butter and other shortening. And they have the added advantage of always having cream if needed in an emergency. Try it on our suggestion.

Want to Feel Just Right?

Take an NR Tonight

JUST TRY IT AND SEE how much better you feel in the morning. That "tired," headachy, tired, don't-know-what's-the-matter feeling will be gone—you'll feel fine.

TROUBLE IS, your system is clogged with a lot of impurities that your over-worked digestive and eliminative organs can't get rid of. Pills, oil, salts, calomel and ordinary laxatives, cathartics and purges only force the bowels and prod the liver.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and even kidneys, not forcing, but toning and strengthening these organs. The result is prompt relief and real, lasting benefit. Make the test. Nature's Remedy will act promptly, thoroughly, yet so mildly, so gently, that you will think nature herself has come to the rescue and is doing the work.

And oh, what a relief! You'll be surprised to find how much better you feel—brighter, better every day. If habitually or stubbornly constipated, take one NR Tablet each night for a week. Then you'll not have to take medicine every day. Just an occasional NR Tablet after that will be sufficient to keep your system in good condition—keep you feeling your best.

OHIO FARM BUREAU FEDERATION STUDIES CANADIAN METHODS

Mr. F. G. Ketner, marketing expert of the Ohio Farm Bureau, recently returned from the study of Canadian conditions. Mr. Ketner reports that some fifteen or twenty years ago the farmers of Western Canada were in a very distressing condition owing to the bad marketing conditions surrounding their principle crop wheat. The government tried to help them out in various ways even to the extent of purchasing and erecting elevators but experience soon taught the government, itself, that it had no business in this game.

Mr. Ketner states that, accordingly, the farmers decided that if the grain market problem was to be solved its solution depended upon themselves (essential No. 1.) Accordingly, they decided to do it (essential No. 2). In 1906 the nucleus of the United Grain Growers' Company, a purely co-operative organization was effected. Several elevators were leased and a seat on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange was purchased. In a few months the new company was handling a nice volume of grain and the farmers were congratulating themselves on the results.

A blow came from a clear sky. The young company was suddenly ejected from the grain exchange because of the refunding of profits to the farmers who did business with them was a direct violation of the sacred laws of the exchange. Six to ten cars of grain arriving daily, every dollar of resources staked and no outlet for the grain was a trying ordeal for beginners. In secret conference the worried directors discussed liquidating and giving up in despair, but finally they decided to stand firm and continue as a stock company, thus regaining their seat on the exchange.

Sad day for the bulls and bears. The enforcement of their own law compelled the United Grain Growers' Company to retain the profits which they desired to pre-empt to their stock holders and thus become powerful. Leases were negotiated for every possible elevator in Alberta and Manitoba, others were purchased or erected. The volume of grain handled increased rapidly. Through a centralized system of control in management substantial profits were netted. Arrangements were made whereby they could deliver their own grain on eastern shore of the Atlantic. New departments have been added. The marketing of live stock, the purchase of farm supplies and farm land exchange are departments conducted incidental to the grain marketing plan. Today the United Grain Growers' Limited of Canada is the greatest and most effective farmers' grain marketing organization on the American continent.

Incidentally it may be of interest to note that a Fayette County man, Fred West, in connection with his big grain farm in Canada purchased ten shares of stock, the limit, in this farmers' grain organization. On this stock he paid $15 a share and was allowed fifteen years to pay the balance. This was seven years ago. The dividends which have been declared by this company each year have paid his annual assessment and last year paid in addition $4.20 a share.

GREENE IS SWEEP BY GREAT HAILSTORM

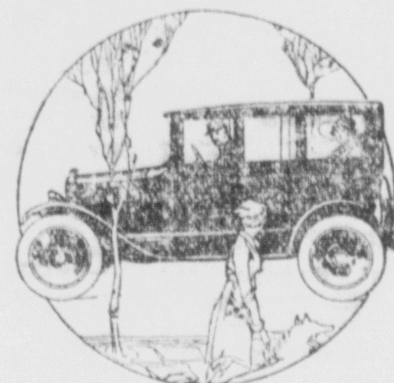

The worst hail storm striking Green county in recent years swept over part of that county Saturday evening about the time the storm hit Fayette county.

Reports from northern Greene county say that in some instances whole fields of corn were stripped, the fruit and other crops completely ruined, and damage reaching into the thousands of dollars resulted.

Where the hailstone, banked up, in small depressions they froze into cakes of ice which required several hours to melt.

Stop Buying So Much Gas!

The Overland Sedan

Costs by the Month, Saves by the Mile!

Eats Up Distance, Saves Dollars!

On a railroad, it is the trip and not the ticket that completes the transaction; and it is so with an automobile. No institution can build up goodwill on good-byes.

The Willys-Overland Organization is just as interested in Overland owners after they have bought as before they are sold.

Saving you money on up-keep is just as important as saving you money on the price of the car. And when gasoline began to go up four years ago, word went out to our designers that Overland owners must be protected, and the price of gasoline must be brought down—but not at the price of comfort!—get that, for that was the crux of the problem.

Hypothetically, it was impossible, and yet—

Under stimulus of a great public need, and spurred on by the pride of a great reputation, the designers of the Overland have Done the Thing that Couldn't be Done!—

they have unraveled still another insoluble secret of mechanics, by creating that marvel of mechanism, the new Suspension Triplex Spring, permitting the use of light alloy steels for economy, and acting as a pneumatic buffer between the Road and You!

What the new Overland car and its remarkable improvements cost to create we shall never know. But we do know that it cost $6,000,000 to get ready to incorporate them into the new Overland car, and that the Overland car was a great car before these improvements were initiated and adopted.

So it seems a fair conclusion: That an institution that will voluntarily upset the ramifications of one of the greatest automobile manufacturing plants in the world, in order to reduce the gasoline bills of Overland owners, justifies the past, the future, and the immediate confidence of the American people.

Ninety-seven cities recently reported ninety-seven Overland Sedans as averaging 25.2 miles per gallon of gas

FAST BOXING AT THE ARMORY

Fast and Clever Work of Serra and Webb Delight Crowd Monday Night.

The big crowd which packed the Armory Monday night was greatly pleased with the fast and clever work of the boxers who put on the main bout of the evening—Young Webb of Dayton and Joe Serra of Columbus, and honors were about equal at the close of the tenth round with the young Daytonian keeping the older "man" busy from the sound of the gong at the opening of the first round until the close of the tenth. William Palmer refereed and his work was most satisfactory.

Both men waded into the work in real earnest at the very beginning.

and both being fast and not only clever with their fists but experts in foot-work, they kept the spectators keyed up to a high pitch throughout the bout.

Serra's favorite blow was a left swing to the jaw, but regardless of the fact that he landed this blow many times there was never sufficient strength behind it to floor his opponent, who always came back for more. Webb worked hard on his opponent's face, but the old ring man stood the onslaught without flinching. The vicious uppercuts of Webb nearly always swept the air as Serra ducked aside. The in-fighting of the men was frequent and furious, and time after time the referee was compelled to force a breakaway. It was easily the best bout witnessed in this city in recent years.

The first preliminary was between Chester Coble and Herbert Scott, colored boys, who pummeled each other lively for a short time.

The second preliminary was entirely one-sided, Johnny Anderson, of Columbus, easily outpointing Tom Hillery of this city. Hillery was groggy in the third round and in the fourth the bout was stopped when Hillery ceased to guard and being at the mercy of his opponent, the bout was stopped by the referee and decision given to Anderson, who has had much experience in the ring, and Hillery practically none.

Nig Carmichael challenged Anderson to a bout which will be held in the near future.

A LARGE NUMBER OF WOMEN SAY THEY WON'T VOTE

Less Than Fifty Percent of Fayette County Women Are Expected to Go to Polls.

Big Number of Young Women Insist They Will Avail Themselves of Suffrage Privilege.

Inquiry among women of Fayette county leads to the belief that less than half of the several thousand women will avail themselves of the opportunity to cast their ballot at the November election. It is believed by some that the number voting probably will not exceed one-third of the total number.

With the proclamation announcing that all women over 21 years of age who are American citizens can cast their ballot in Ohio for the first time, hundreds of women are declaring that they will not vote, and a great many insist that they never will do so.

"Let the men do the voting they can conduct the government as it should be," is the declaration of many women.

However a large number welcome the opportunity and express their intention of casting their ballot, and many of these frankly admit that their vote will "kill" that of their husbands, as they cannot vote for the choice expressed by their husbands.

The young women, who have as a rule shown more interest in suffrage than some of their older companions, declare that they will vote almost to a woman, and are now seeking information how to properly mark their ballots to express their choice. It is believed that 80 per cent of the women under 27 will vote.

Some of the older women of the county, including a few who have passed their three-score and tenth year are eager to cast their vote, and announce their intention of going to the polls in November and voting their choice.

At the present time there is a great deal of interest in the right of women to vote, and it is being discussed on all sides, generally favorably, but very often unfavorably, the latter of course being by those who have steadfastly opposed suffrage. Women candidates are expected in the elections after this year.

MRS. COFFMAN BUYS BUILDING

The following excerpt from a Hillsboro paper will be read with interest by friends of Mrs. Chas. Coffman, who formerly owned the Rothrock Laundry in this city but has located in Hillsboro.

"The New Laundry Building has been purchased by Mrs. Charles Coffman, owner of the New Laundry. This building was a part of the Whisler properties and was purchased from Mrs. Charles Whisler. It is a two story building, especially built for a laundry on the first floor.

Mrs. Coffman is an expert business woman, especially well versed in proper laundry management, and since her recent return from Washington C. H. Mrs. Coffman has been very anxious to secure the building so as to make some desired changes and improvements on the main floor.

Although the New Laundry is already one of the most modern and completely equipped in this section of the state, yet Mrs. Coffman is making arrangements still to further increase the equipment and add allied departments, which will enable her to care for an even increasing volume of business and a more varied line of laundry and cleaning work.

OLD PAL PETE:

This is a P. S. to the letter I wrote you on the buzzing Limited. Kid, for a fact, I'm hitting 13 on making up Camel advertisements. And I'll say it right here! Porter, give us the lights!

Just skimmed another swell Camel fact! Stop this: Guess I've smoked a million Camels! Pete, they never tired my taste yet!!!! And, old socks, put Camels to the test! Then you'll wise up that Camels leave no unpleasant cigarette after-taste nor unpleasant cigarette odor!

That's some smoke news, I'll say, when you been trying to fuss the "straight" brands! And, old shoe, you ought to know, they gave you a lacing!

What makes a dent on my disposition is that while Camels are the mildest cigarette and the mellowest cigarette any man can buy they've got all the "body" you ever heard tell of!

Why Pete, I got as many new selling ideas about Camels as there are hairs on a purr-kitty's tail!

Drop your old lamps down here,—how's that for blazing the joy Camels pass out!

Me for more of 'em

Shorty.

Johns-Manville Transite Asbestos Shingles are safe—because they cannot burn. They are a practically imperishable combination of Asbestos and Portland cement.

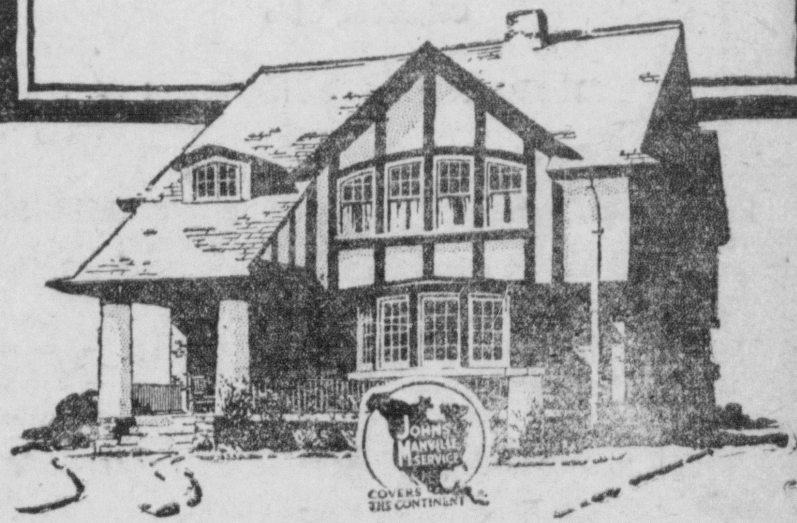

Economical, too—whether for bungalow or mansion.

Moderate in first cost, easily applied, they actually toughen as they age on the roof. They require no painting or coating, hence effect real savings in upkeep.

And, as they are applied in such a variety of shapes, sizes, thicknesses and colors, you can gain an unusual roof treatment while still retaining the pleasant artistic effect of the shingle roof.
